Republican State Convention,

The Ohio State Republican Central Committee have been a call for the Sith of April Convection.

The near Republican State Convention will be first on the City of Columbia, so the Sith day of April act. The Convention will acceptant of April act. The Convention will acceptant of April next. The Convention will accept the Samprome Convention. Convention of the Samprome Convention of Convention States and four Advances, the Institute States and four delegates and four Advances, to represent the Republicants of Union in the National Convention, at Ottologo, Illinois, June 1984. The opinion is steadily obtaining throughout the Union that Gen. Garfield is the "dark horse" that may win the prize at Chicago.

Col. Samual B. Smith of Montgomery County is a candidate, for Secretary of State. His record is a good one and will unite the support of his friends and

The Daily Democrat, of Columbus, has been partially reorganized, and now apmaterial in it editorial and reportorial departments to issue an alert and vigorous newspaper.

E. & A. H. Batchellor & Co's, great boot and shoe manufactory, in North Brookfield, Mass.—the most extensive in the country—has a capacity, when pushed to its utmost, of 7,000 pairs of shoes and 2,500 pairs of boots per day.

It is said that the Czar has just made the discovery that half a hundred lazy fellows were satablished to his palace, more active in robbing him than in anything else. Indeed his palace was full of disorderly loafers and a very hot bed of conspiracy.

After reviewing the field, the New Orleans Penyune reaffirms its belief that it would be unwise for the Democrats to nominate Tilden against Grant, as it would cause three, if not four, southern States to become debatable and doubtful.

Senator Ben Hill of Georgia, is beleagued at Washington by a woman from Atlanta Georgia, with a child; charging Hill as her seducor. Belva Lockwood, the female barrister has the case in hand, asking for damages of 10,000. The Senator says its a blackmalling enterprise.

It is hardly to be believed, that our great men,"-Senators Cameron, Ben. Hill, and U. S. Minister Christiancy, &c., intended that their "foot prints on the sands of time," should be so sorry a parady upon the beautiful conception of the poet, as they seem likely to prove.

The next election returns are to be count ed in the presence of two confederate majorities in Congress. There is no telling what devilment Tilden will stir them up to. A rousing, over-whelming Republican victory will take the disposition to mischief out of them. Let us then have the strongest man for our leader.

Grant's apparent harrying off to Cuba and Mexico, so soon after his arrival from his long journey around the world, awakened a feeling of vague surprise and ouriosity, which has not lessened in interest by the occurrences of the journey-accident by rail, shocked by carthquake and capping the climax by a rumored mishap upon the ocean.

A private letter informs us of that exten sive revival of religion has been in progress in Stamford, Ct., and as a result, 130 additions have been made to the Presbyterian church. A notable feature of this revival and addition to the church, is the case of the Hon. Truman Smith, in his 95th year—in his day a prominent actor in the affairs of the government.

He must burry up and stop this thing. Though Senator Cameron was too much for his inamorata before the courts, it remnins to be seen how the ex-Senator is to make it with his little plonds. Senator Ben Hill seems to have got Jessie Raymond in the leading strings.

It would be a courteous graceful act for the Republicans of the XIXth District to sand as one of the delegates to the Republican Convention at Chiengo, J. O.
